

Four Sustainable Development Goals

AGENDA 2030

The “Agenda 2030 for sustainable development”, formally adopted at the UN Sustainability Summit of Heads of State and Government in New York on September 25, 2015 is a sort of “global future treaty” with 17 Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) contributing to a life in dignity for all. The international community agreed on contributing actively and substantially to transform all lives and to protect the planet by 2030.

For the contest, the following Goals are important:

SDG 7

affordable and clean energy

SDG 11

sustainable cities and communities

SDG 12

responsible consumption and production

climate action
